

BURGH ISLAND

HOTEL

YOUR ISLAND - YOUR RULES

Burgh Island is dedicated to your ceremony, celebrations and parties.

For over 16 years, we have been organising weddings and parties for guests looking for something unusual but sophisticated, classically art deco but personal, intimate and glamorous.

Romance

This is undoubtedly one of the most romantic locations in England: an Hotel and a Smuggler's Inn set on a tidal island, surrounded by sea, sunshine and drama, and at low tide, accessible over the virgin beach.

Uncountable romances have begun and flourished here since the hotel was opened in 1929: Edward Windsor and Wallis Simpson being one of the most notorious couples.

In 2012, Burgh Island was voted “most romantic hotel in Britain” by readers of The Good Hotel Guide and in 2015 we received an Editors' Choice Award from the GHG for “most romantic venue”.

Party Time

Everyone has significant celebrations they want to share with friends and family. Burgh Island is the perfect backdrop for your birthday, get-together, reunion or – hey - just an excuse to treat yourselves to one of the most memorable parties ever!

Exclusive Use

Exclusive use of the Hotel includes 25 rooms (up to 50 guests) for dinner, bed and breakfast and the cost for this to 31st March 2019 is £16,435. We will work with you on: advance planning; menu tasting for the lead couple; supervision and advice on your music and entertainment plans; parking on the mainland for your resident guests; transport across the beach and priority check in for the lead couple.

The Extras

Music: we have a roster of bands, all of whom are familiar with the hotel and the logistics of tides and who offer a range of period or more contemporary music. We can also recommend Murder Mystery players, local DJs and London based cabaret artists, including “Noel Coward”.

Rooms: If you have any special needs we will advise on the most suitable rooms for you. We have three twin bedded rooms, the others are all double rooms or suites.

Wines: our wine list is extensive. Our house champagne, glamorous Tattner, comes in at £69 a bottle, while we also offer well-known and loved Bollinger at £82. Our champagne and wine prices are subject to market fluctuations.

On party nights, our bar closes at midnight. If you wish to keep the bar open after this time there will be a charge of £500.

All prices are quoted inclusive of vat.

Most importantly, your dedicated Manager will build a tailored checklist with you in the lead up to your wedding so that you are sure of each step of your special day and your budgetary requirements are clear and predicted.
