The Palm Court with its light and airy sun lounge and terrace is often referred to as 'a temple of art deco'.

The defining feature of The Palm Court lounge is the stained-glass dome on the ceiling- A mesmerizing kaleidoscope of blues, greens and turquoise. It was commissioned in 1929 by Archie Nettlefold. It was under the up-and-coming architect Matthew Dawson that Jane Wailes, one of his proteges, created detailed drawings of the decadent Peacock dome that continues to adorn the ceiling of this beautiful space today.

The Palm Court lounge invites guests with its calm ambience and an upliftingly bright sun lounge. It is the perfect spot to relax whilst listening to gentle music from the era or indulging in a light bite and a refreshing beverage. It is so easy to drift off back to a bygone era and imagine some of our iconic historical guests of the past, including Agatha Christie and Noel Coward, doing just the same.

FEATURED COCKTAIL

BURGH NEGRONI

"The bitters are excellent for your liver; the gin is bad for you. They balance each other."
Orson Wells

Created in a little caffe in Florence according to the lore, the Negroni took his name from the negroni family, which opened a distillery to produce it in large batches.

This is a twist on the original recipe has become a staple in our Palm Court Bar.
